)	CHARGES AND OPPORTUNITY FOR
Class III Employee.)	AN ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDING

I.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Rogelio R. Corpuz the following Certification:

Number 69-26430, Authorizing Class III Employee¹ activity. This certification expires on February 17, 2010, and was issued subject to the certified employee's compliance with state gambling laws and regulations.

Jurisdiction of this proceeding is based on 9.46 RCW, Gambling, Chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, WAC Title 230, and the Muckleshoot Tribal-State Compact.

II.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the certified employee with the following violation(s) of the Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, WAC Title 230, and the Muckleshoot Tribal-State Compact:

- The certified employee has a certification issued by the Washington State Gambling Commission, and a tribal license through the Muckleshoot Tribal Gaming Agency, to work as a Poker Supervisor.
- On June 12, 2009, surveillance staff at the Muckleshoot casino observed the certified employee place two, red, $5 chips in his pocket. According to Muckleshoot Indian Casino Poker Department Policies, Poker Room employees working in a supervisory position cannot solicit or accept any tip or gratuity from any player or patron.
- On July 20, 2009, the certified employee was interviewed by Muckleshoot Tribal Gaming Agent(s) (TGA). The certified employee admitted that for the past three months, he kept tips given to him by patrons. At times, Mr. Corpuz took $13 to $15 dollars per week, for a total of approximately $75 to $100 in tips that should have been given to the on-duty Board and Brush.² At the end of the interview, the TGA advised the certified employee that his gaming license was suspended pending further review.

- On August 20, 2009, the Muckleshoot Gaming Commission notified the certified employee that his tribal certification license was revoked, based on fraud.
- Therefore, grounds exist to revoke the certification under RCW 9.46.190, RCW 9.46.075(1), (8), and (10), WAC 230-03-085(1), (3), and (8), and Section V(C) of the Muckleshoot Tribal-State Compact.

RCW 9.46.075 Denial, suspension, or revocation of license, application, or permit states:

The Commission may deny an application, or suspend or revoke any license or permit issued by it, for any reason or reasons, it deems to be in the public interest. These reasons shall include, but not be limited to, cases wherein the applicant or licensee, or any person with any interest therein: (The following subsection(s) apply.)

(1) Has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by chapter 9.46 RCW and any amendments thereto, or any rules adopted by the Commission pursuant thereto, or when a violation of any provision of chapter 9.46 RCW, or any Commission rule, has occurred upon any premises occupied or operated by any such person or over which he or she has substantial control;

(8) Fails to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that he, she or it is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

(10) Has pursued or is pursuing economic gain in an occupational manner or context which is in violation of the criminal or civil public policy of this state if such pursuit creates probable cause to believe that the participation of such person in gambling or related activities would be inimical to the proper operation of an authorized gambling or related activity in this state. For the purposes of this section, occupational manner or context shall be defined as the systematic planning, administration, management or execution of an activity for financial gain.

Muckleshoot Tribe/State Compact Section V(C) states:

The State Gaming Agency may revoke, suspend or deny a State certification under the provisions of RCW 9.46.075, and rules promulgated there under, or for any reason or reasons it deems to be in the public interest. In addition, these reasons shall include, but shall not be limited to when a holder of certification: (The following subsection(s) apply.)

(1) Is determined to be a person whose prior activities, criminal record, if any, or reputation, habits and associations pose a threat to the effective regulation of gaming or create or enhance the chances of unfair or illegal practices, methods and activities in the conduct of the gaming activities or the person has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by any provision of a Tribal-State Compact.

²“Board and Brush” are poker room employees who are responsible for assisting players with seating and they brush the felt tops of the poker tables to keep them clean.

(3) Has had a Tribal or state gaming license revoked or denied during the twelve (12) months prior to the date of receipt of the application; is currently on probation; or has demonstrated a willful disregard for compliance with gaming regulatory authority in any jurisdiction, including offenses that could subject the individual or entity to suspension, revocation or forfeiture of a gaming license. For the purpose of reviewing any application for a state certification and for considering the denial, suspension or revocation of any state certification the state gaming agency may consider any prior criminal conduct or current probationary status of the applicant or holder of certification and the provisions of RCW 9.95.240 and of chapter 9.96A RCW shall not apply to such cases.

RCW 9.46.190 Violation relating to fraud or deceit states:

Any person or association or organization operating any gambling activity who or which, directly or indirectly, shall in the course of such operation: (The following subsection applies.)

(3) Engage in any act, practice or course of operation as would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person;

Shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor subject to the penalty set forth in RCW 9A.02.021.

WAC 230-03-085 Denying, suspending, or revoking an application, license or permit states:

We may deny, suspend, or revoke any application, license or permit, when the applicant, licensee, or anyone holding a substantial interest in the applicant's or licensee's business or organization: (The following subsection(s) apply.)

(1) Commits any act that constitutes grounds for denying, suspending, or revoking licenses or permits under RCW 9.46.075; or

(3) Has demonstrated willful disregard for complying with ordinances, statutes, administrative rules, or court orders, whether at the local, state, or federal level; or

(8) Poses a threat to the effective regulation of gambling, or creates or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gambling activities, as demonstrated by: (a) Prior activities; or (b) Criminal record; or (c) Reputation; or (d) Habits; or (e) Associations.

III.

Jurisdiction of this proceeding is based on the Muckleshoot Tribal/State Compact, 9.46 RCW Gambling, chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, and WAC Title 230.

The certified employee will have the opportunity to have a hearing on the alleged violations.

In order to have a hearing or discuss settlement options, the enclosed Request for Hearing must be completed and returned to the Gambling Commission within 23 days from the date of the mailing of this notice.

Based on RCW 34.05.440, failure to return this document will result in the entry of a default order REVOKING your certification.
